- END -

Explanation - This amendment:

1. Eliminates the funding from the school guarantee account, which raised a constitutional issue.
2. Increases the supplemental employer contribution over 10 years. This contribution may be decreased by the board after the GABA is reinstated if the system is 90% funded and liabilities will amortize in less than 15 years.
3. Provides that when the system is 90% funded and liabilities will amortize in less than 15 years, the supplemental employer contribution may not be decreased until the GABA has been fully reinstated.
4. Establishes a state block grant to counties for schools to pay the supplemental employer contribution. The block grant funding will have to be appropriated in HB 2 and will decrease by 10% each year starting July 1, 2015.
